INTRODUCTION

Sarawak Oil Palm Plantation Owners Association (SOPPOA) is proud to announce its flagship event: Palm Oil Management, Technology, Exhibition & Conference (POMtec) 2025. The event is set to become a key platform for stakeholders within the palm oil industry to collaborate, share innovations, and strategies toward a more efficient and sustainable palm oil supply chain.

POMtec 2025 aims to address the growing demands for sustainable palm oil production, by focusing on technology-driven solutions and improved management practices across the industry's supply chain.

OBJECTIVES

- Streamlining Supply Chain: Improve efficiency and transparency across the palm oil supply chain, from plantation management to processing and distribution.
- Boosting Productivity: Showcase cutting-edge technologies and practices that enhance yield and reduce waste.
- Sustainable Initiatives: Promote sustainable practices in line with national and international environmental standards.
- Networking Opportunities: Facilitate dialogue between industry players, policymakers, and technology providers.
- Innovation Exchange: Provide a platform to present innovations in digitalization, automation, and best management practices that contribute to sustainability and profitability.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

Plantation owners and managers, palm oil millers, refiners, researchers, entrepreneurs, manufacturers, and suppliers of products and services related to palm oil industry.

CONFERENCE

The Conference will cover oral presentations from various organizations including government departments, universities, research institutions, and private sectors on subject related to palm oil industry. The number of seats for the conference is limit at 300 participants. Thus, the registration will be based on first come first served basis.

The registration fee is RM1,000.00 per participant inclusive a ticket to Gala Dinner.

Participant can register through the attached link:
www.soppoa.org.my/pomtec2025/

EXHIBITION

In conjunction with conference, an exhibition will be also be organized for suppliers of products and services related to the palm oil industry. This provides valuable opportunities for the exhibitors to showcase their products and services.

At the same time, it serves as an ideal platform to network and stay updated on the latest technologies and innovations offer by the exhibitors.

The cost of exhibition booth is depending on the locations of the booth as shown in the Exhibition Layout Plan.
